"In the sweetness of friendship, Let there be laughter, and the sharing of pleasures."

— KAHLIL GIBRAN

DONNA ACCORSI

"Look to this day . . . For yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision . . ."

EDWARD ALLARD

"Eddy"

"You have to be careful about being too careful."

PETER BARO

"Life is nothing more than a rolling stone."

MARC BASTARACHE

"The highest of distinctions is service to others."

DAVID BAYER
"Dave"

"I can hear the whistle blowin'
As I'm comin' to the track
Got to get to where I'm goin'
Cause you know I can't go back."

STEVEN BEALS

"The world is beautiful but has a disease called man."

DENISE BEAUDOIN
"Bode"

"To live fully, we must learn to use things and love people . . . not love things and use people."

CLAUDETTE BEDARD
"Claude"

"Our problems are man-made; therefore can be solved by man."

BONNIE BEGGS

"The kindest word in all the world is the unkind word, unsaid."

ALBERT BELANGER

"Paratume animo opibusque ab ludo?"

ANITA BELANGER

"There is no single day or time within the life I've so far lived that I'd have changed or altered."

DAVID BELISLE
"Dave"

"People get tired of everything, and of nothing sooner than what they most like."

KENNETH BIRON
"Ken"

"Let there be light."

DEBRA BOKOSKI
"Debbie"

"It's not that you do something for someone, it's that you be something for someone."

SANDRA BONI
"Boni"

"Take good care of your future because that's where you're going to spend the rest of your life."

SUSAN BOZEK
"Sue"

"I feel like a seeded field in midwinter, and I know that spring is coming. My brooks will run and the little life that sleeps in me will rise to the surface when called."

DAVID BRIGGS
"Dave"

"In the long journey of education, I've taken but a few steps."

EDWARD BRISSON
"Edziu"

"To be nobody, but myself — in a world which is doing its best to make you everybody else —"

JAYNE BROWN

"What ship would bear me ever back across so narrow a sea."

CATHERINE BRYAN
"Cathy"

"Soul of a woman is created below."

TAMMY BUCCHI
"Buch"

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road, where the race of men go by. The men who are good and the men who are bad, as good and as bad as I."

DAWN CAMERON
"Weintin"

"Is that right!"

LESLIE CARTIER

"Things that are natural are never without a grace and excellence."

PAUL CASTAGNARO

"The crownless again, shall be King."

MICHAEL CATALANO
"Cat"

"Mankind thrives on mankind, its survival is indefinite."

BRIAN CHAMBERLIN
"Wilt"

"Too many of our prejudices are like pyramids upside down. They rest on tiny trivial incidents, but they spread upward and outward until they fill our minds."

WILLIAM CHASE
"Billy"

"The world is a stage and people are the cast in the play of Life."

CATHY CLANCY
"Clanka"

"We're living in a land of make-believe and trying not to let it show. Maybe in that land of make-believe heartache can turn into joy."

ALFRED CLOSSON

"Life is not measured by the time we live."

CYNTHIA COFFEY
"Cindy"

"I finally decided my future lies beyond the yellow brick road."

CASSANDRA CONKLIN
"Sandy"

Closing

As we roam along this spacious, deserted land our bodies indulging in the rise of the morning gem.
Early dawn is lighting up the horizon with a lash of flame.
Shuffling our feet,
we go on near the pale, blue waters.
which are calmly riding along the soft sands.
I see salty waters reaching out passing his cold, icy hand forward.

CELINA CHARLAND

Our world was the clear,
Untouched raindrop puddle
Amid the polluted World outside Without destruction present at the time.

But suddenly
An obstacle appeared
And fell into our private world.
The purity that once was ours
Was now being invaded.
The strange object
Unknown to us before Caused our puddle to form into endless rings
And eventually drift apart.

JANE GIARD

Oh, how I wish that I was free of troubles,
heartaches,
and miseries.
That my mind could just wander
in happy thoughts and leave all others far, far behind.
That my heart could be overflowing with joy and love
instead of the worries
it seems to hold.
Oh dear God, please give me the hope that I'll be truly free.

NANCY SEFAKIS

Dead, glassy-eyed fish float on oily, black water as the willow weeps

JOYCE JOSEPH

SO LONG
We've walked a road together
And we've shared along the way
But now we've reached the fork ahead you go on for I must stay.
I hope you picked a flower or two
And I hope my thorns didn't really hurt you.
Call what I said
sarcasm
Call what I said
cruel
If it had been some years ago
you'd have challenged me to a duel.

But what I said needed to be
At least that's the way
it seems to me.
So scram now
walk beyond the bend
But always remember
if you need a friend
I'm here . . .

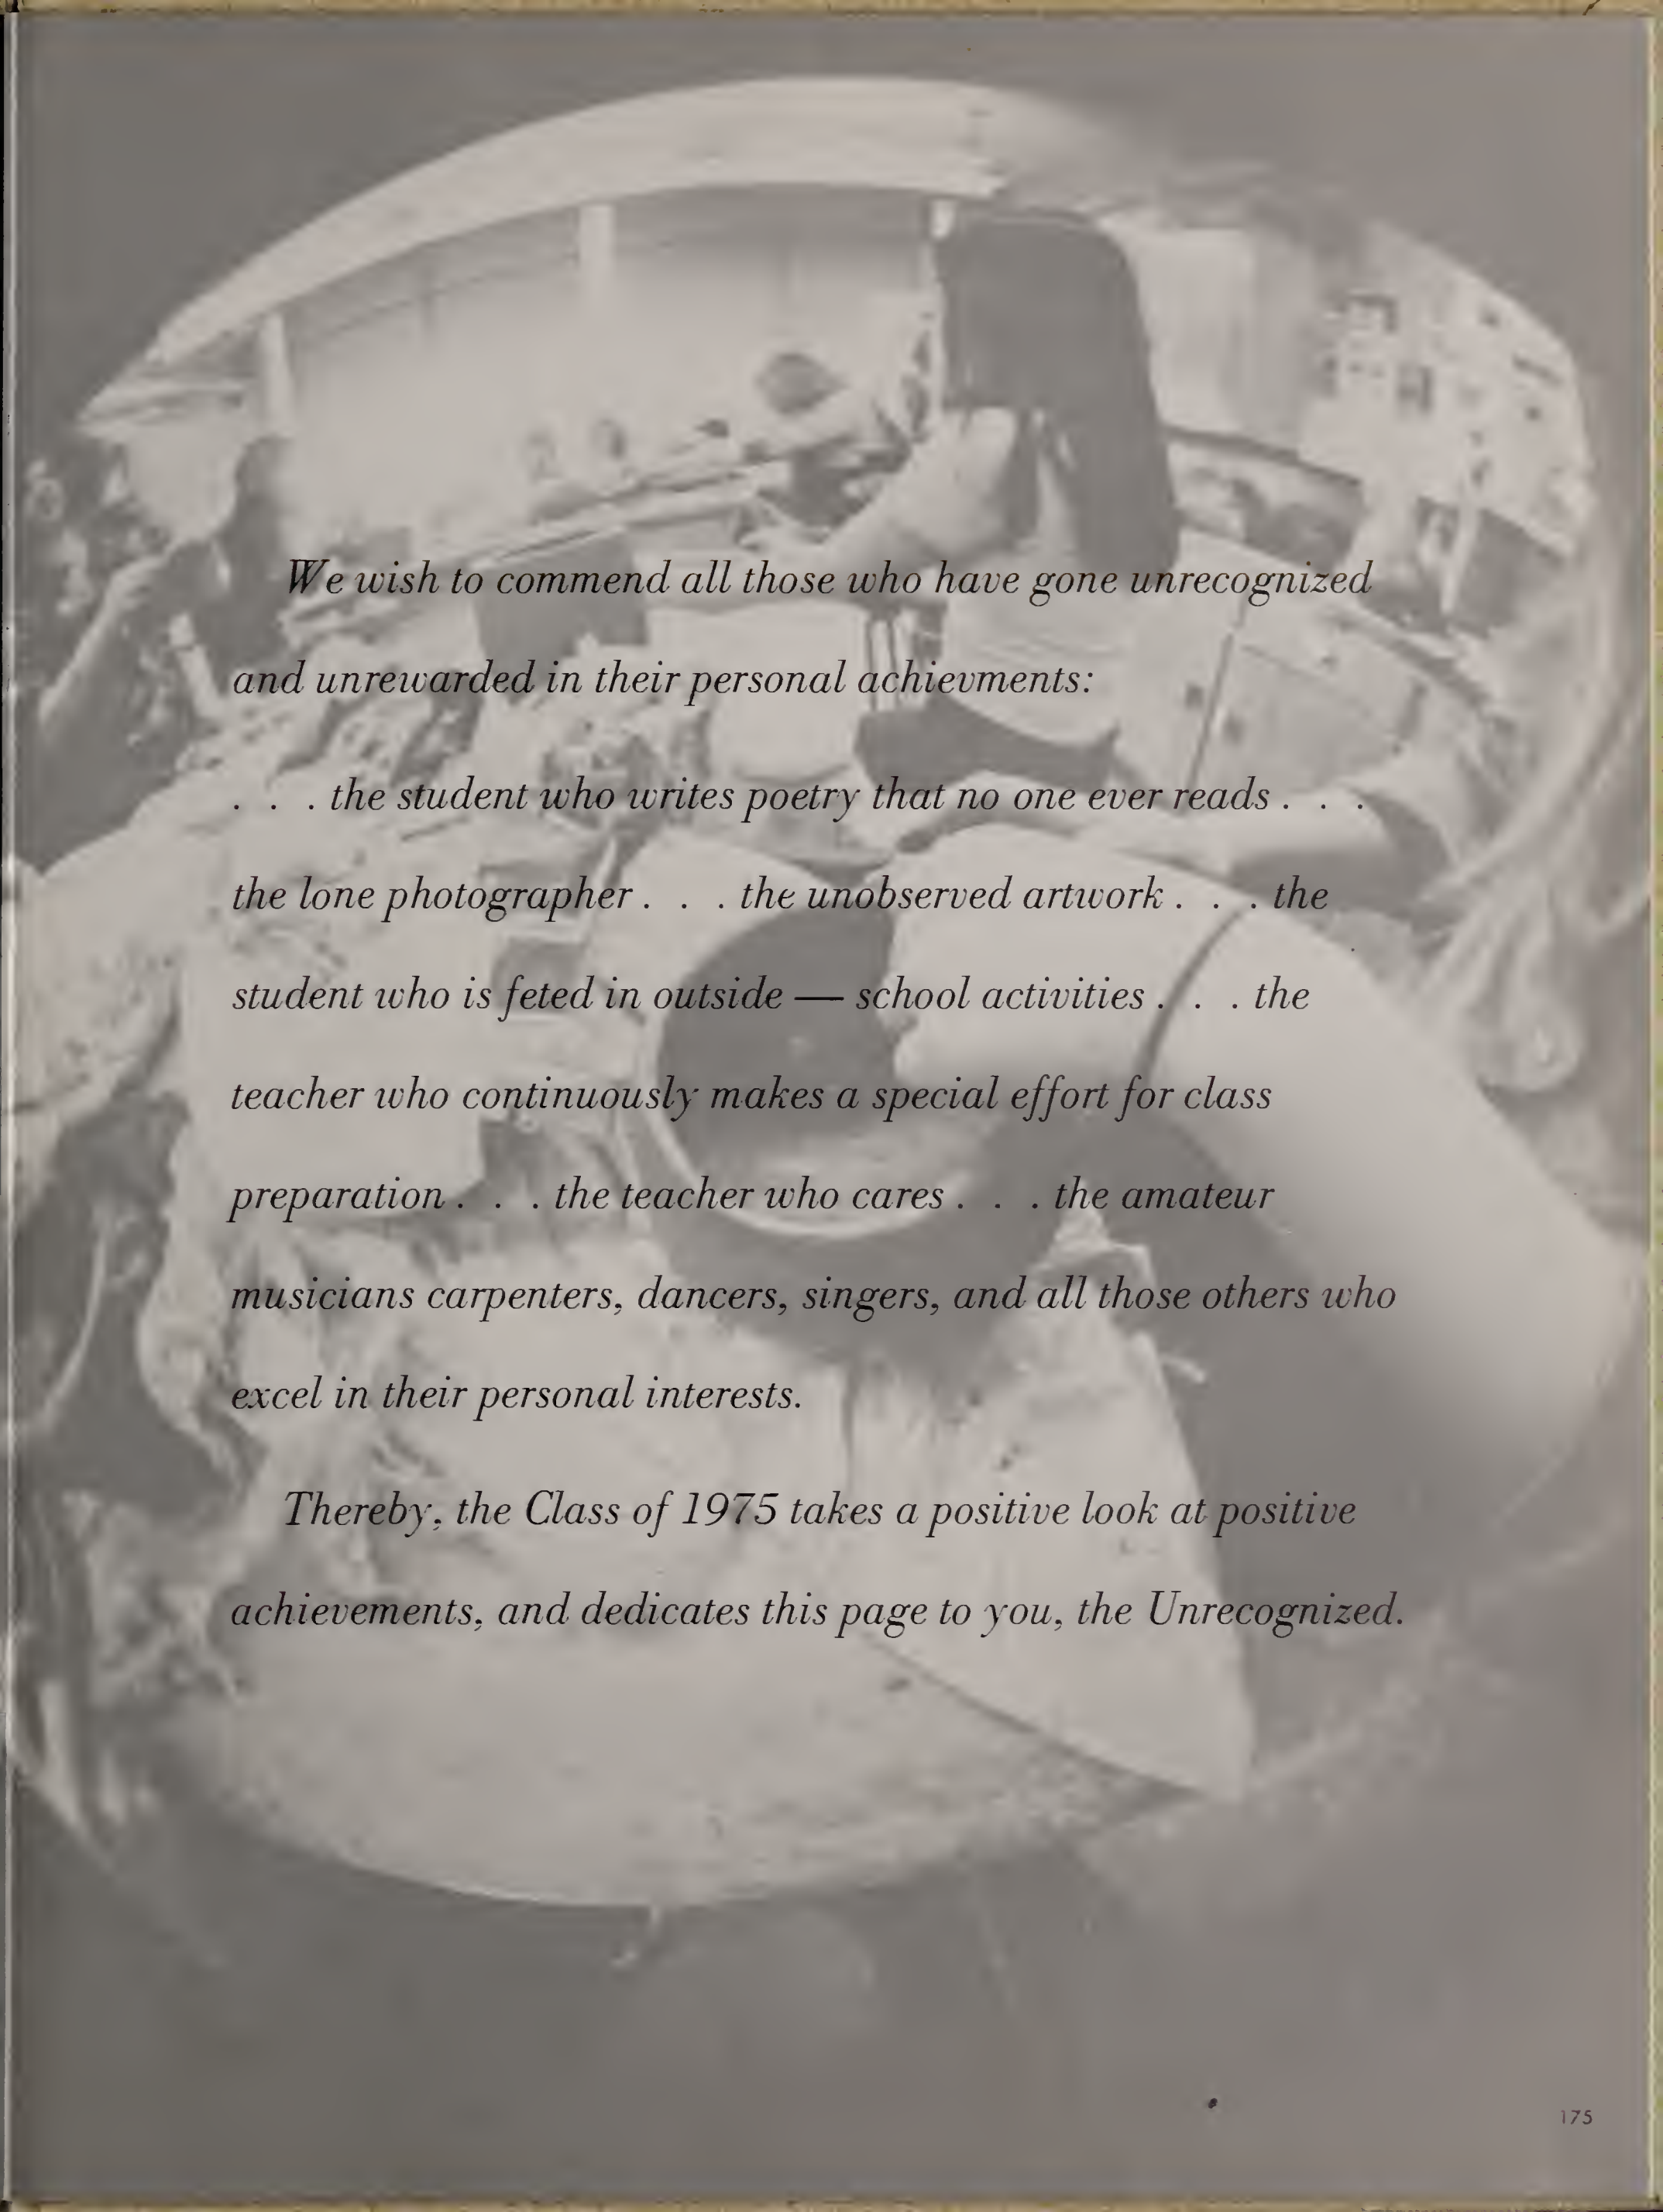

So long

So long . . .

MR. JOHN J. THUOT

Oh, how difficult it is to be young
And worried
Like me.
I worry all the time.
What will it be like when I am grown?
What will become of me?
Where will I live, and with whom?
Will I have a home?
Will I be loved?
Will I be rich?
Or must I work?
Will I travel and see the world?
Or spend my life in one room in a basket?
Who will have me and what will they be like?
Or must I roam the alleyways
For fish heads
And shiver through nights of sleet and rain
Behind some fence?

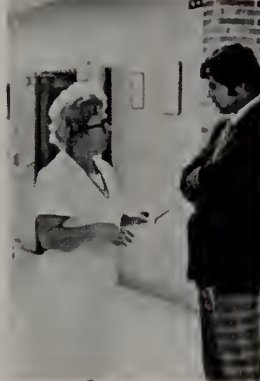

BRENDA DUCHARME

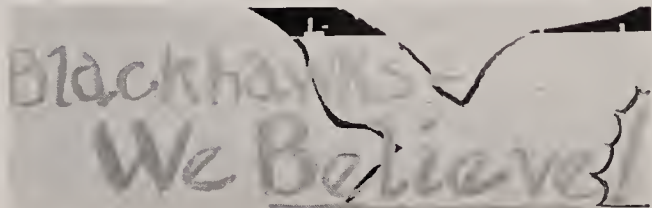

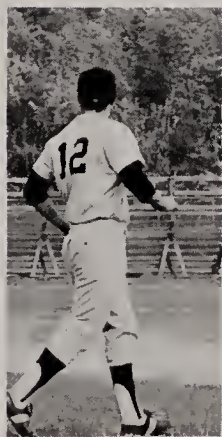

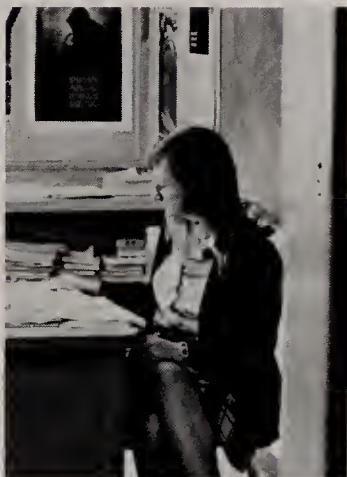

We wish to commend all those who have gone unrecognized and unrewarded in their personal achievements:

*. . . the student who writes poetry that no one ever reads . . .
the lone photographer . . . the unobserved artwork . . . the student who is feted in outside — school activities . . . the teacher who continuously makes a special effort for class preparation . . . the teacher who cares . . . the amateur musicians carpenters, dancers, singers, and all those others who excel in their personal interests.*

Thereby, the Class of 1975 takes a positive look at positive achievements, and dedicates this page to you, the Unrecognized.
